39. Indemnification by Tenant. Tenant shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Landlord and its Affiliates, officers, commissioners, employees, agents, and assigns (collectively, "Landlord Indemnified Parties"), from any and all Claims, of any kind or character imposed upon, arising out of, in connection with, incurred or in any way attributed or relating to the Assumed Liabilities, the breach, non-performance or default by Tenant of any representation, warranty, covenant or obligation of Tenant that is contained in this Lease or contained in other agreement, certificate or document entered into in connection with this Lease.

40. Notice to the Indemnifying Party. Promptly after the assertion of any claim by a third-party against a Party or of a Party learning of the occurrence of any event which may give rise to a claim for indemnification from the other Party ("Indemnifying Party") under this Section 40, such Party ("Indemnified Party") shall notify the Indemnifying Party in writing of such claim ("Indemnity Notice") and, with respect to claims by third parties, advise the Indemnifying Party whether the Indemnified Party intends to contest same. The right to indemnification hereunder shall not be affected by any failure or delay of or by the Indemnified Party to give an Indemnity Notice unless, and then only to the extent that, the rights and remedies of the Indemnifying Party shall have been prejudiced (including the ability of the Indemnifying Party to obtain applicable insurance coverage) as a result of the failure of the Indemnified Party to give, or delay in giving, such Indemnity Notice.

41. Rights of Parties to Defend and Settle. The Indemnifying Party covenants and agrees to defend the Indemnified Party on account of any claim which may give rise to indemnification hereunder. If the right of indemnity hereunder shall arise from the claim of a third party, the Indemnifying Party shall have the right to assume and control the defense (but not the settlement) of the claim, including the employment of counsel of its choosing, which counsel shall be reasonably acceptable to the Indemnified Party. The Indemnifying Party shall pay all costs and expenses relative to the conduct of such defense, including attorneys' fees and expenses, and the Indemnified Party shall cooperate fully with the Indemnifying Party in connection with the conduct of such defense. The Indemnified Party shall, nevertheless, have the right, if it so elects, to participate (at its own expense and with counsel of its choosing and at its own cost and expense) in the defense of any such claim without relieving the Indemnifying Party of its obligation to defend the same. If the Indemnifying Party fails to undertake the defense of such claim, then the Indemnified Party may take any and all necessary action to dispose of such claim, including, without limitation, the settlement or full payment thereof upon such terms as it shall deem appropriate, in its sole discretion, subject to the following with respect to any proposed settlement thereof. With respect to the settlement or compromise of Claims under this Section 41:

(a) if the Indemnified Party declines to accept a bona fide offer of settlement or compromise that is recommended by the Indemnifying Party, then the maximum liability of the Indemnifying Party for such Claim shall not exceed that amount for which the Indemnifying Party would have been liable had such settlement or compromise been accepted; and

(b) if the Indemnifying Party declines to accept a bona fide offer of settlement or compromise that is recommended by the Indemnified Party, then the Indemnifying Party shall be liable for whatever outcome results from such Claims; provided, however, that neither party may settle or compromise any Claims under this Section 41 without either the prior written consent of the other Party or a full and complete release of the other Party. Notwithstanding the foregoing:

(i) no settlement or compromise that proposes to impose any duty or obligation on any Party other than the payment of money, or that requires a Party to admit liability, responsibility or wrongdoing, may be proposed or accepted without the consent of the Party to be subject to such duty or obligation; and

(ii) the Indemnifying Party (or its insurance carrier) may settle any Claim under this Section 41, without the Indemnified Party's consent, so long as such settlement involves only the payment of money (for which the Indemnifying Party is entirely responsible), does not require the Indemnified Party to admit liability, responsibility or wrongdoing, and includes a full and complete release of the Indemnified Party.

42. Reimbursement. At the time that the Indemnified Party shall suffer a loss because of a breach of any warranty, representation or covenant by the Indemnifying Party or at the time the amount of any liability on the part of the Indemnifying Party under this Section 42 is determined (which in the case of payments to third persons) shall be the earlier of:

(a) the date of such payments; or

(b) the date that a court of competent jurisdiction shall enter a final judgment, order or decree (after exhaustion of appeal rights establishing such liability)), the Indemnifying Party shall forthwith, upon notice from the Indemnified Party, pay to the Indemnified Party, the amount of the indemnity claim. If such amount is not paid forthwith, then the Indemnified Party may, at its option, take legal action against the Indemnifying Party for reimbursement in the amount of its indemnity claim.

43. Period of Indemnity. The aforesaid indemnities under Sections 38 and 39, shall remain in full force and effect:

(a) as they relate to a third-party claim against the indemnified party for a period equal to the applicable statute of limitation for such claim; and

(b) as they relate to breaches of representations, warranties or covenants made by the indemnifying party for the period provided in Section 27, provided, however, if at the expiration of the appropriate period any claim or assessment for indemnification has been asserted but not fully determined, or any audit or other proceeding with respect to any tax matter has been initiated, such period will be extended as to such claim, assessment, audit or other proceeding until it is finally determined or concluded.

44. Governmental Regulations. Except as otherwise provided in Section 12(a) above, Tenant shall throughout the Term, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, promptly comply with all laws and ordinances and notices, orders, rules, regulations and requirements of all federal, state and municipal governments and appropriate departments, commissions, boards and officers thereof, and notices, orders, rules and regulations of the National Board of Fire Underwriters, or any other body now or hereafter constituted exercising similar functions, relating to all or any part of the Premises. Tenant shall keep in force at all times all licenses, consents and permits necessary for Tenant's lawful use of the Premises for the purposes herein provided and Tenant shall pay all personal property taxes, income taxes, license fees, and other taxes which are or may be assessed, levied or imposed upon Tenant in connection with Tenant's operation of its business upon the Premises.

45. Mechanics' Liens, etc.

(a) No Liens. Tenant shall not create or permit to be created or remain, and will discharge, any such lien, encumbrance or charge (levied on account of any imposition or any mechanic's, laborer's or materialman's lien) which might be or become a lien, encumbrance or charge upon the Premises, or any part thereof or the income therefrom, having any priority or preference over or ranking on a parity with the estate, rights and interest of Landlord in the Premises, or any part thereof or the income therefrom, and Tenant shall not suffer any other matter or thing whereby the estate, rights and interest of Landlord in the Premises or any part thereof might be impaired; provided that any mechanic's, laborer's or materialman's lien may be discharged in accordance with Subparagraph (b) of this Section 45.

(b) Discharge of Liens. If Tenant shall cause any mechanic's, laborer's or materialman's lien to be filed against the Premises or any part thereof, Tenant, within thirty (30) days after notice of the filing thereof, shall cause such lien to be discharged of record by payment, deposit, bond, order of a court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise. If Tenant shall fail to cause such lien to be discharged within the period aforesaid, then in addition to any other right or remedy, Landlord may, but shall not be obligated to, discharge such lien either by paying the amount claimed to be due or by procuring the discharge of such lien by deposit or by bonding proceedings, and in any such event, Landlord shall be entitled, if Landlord so elects, to compel the prosecution of any action for the foreclosure of such lien by the lienor and to pay the amount of the judgment in favor of the lienor with interest, costs and allowances. Any amount so paid by Landlord and all costs and expenses incurred by Landlord in connection therewith, together with interest thereon at the rate of six percent (6%) per annum from the respective dates of Landlord's making of the payments and incurring of the costs and expenses, shall be payable by Tenant under this Lease and shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord on demand.

(c) Waiver of Liens. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Section 45, prior to the making of any alterations, additions or improvements to the Premises, Tenant shall, if allowed by applicable law, cause to be duly filed and recorded in the appropriate offices a Waiver of Mechanics' and Materialmen's Liens in form satisfactory to Landlord's counsel, such waivers to be binding on all subcontractors and materialmen.

(d) No Consent of Landlord Intended. Nothing contained in this Lease shall be deemed or construed in any way as constituting the consent or request of Landlord, express or implied by inference or otherwise, to any contractor, subcontractor, laborer or materialman for the performance of any labor or the furnishing of any materials for any specific alteration, addition, improvement or repair to the Premises or any part thereof, nor as giving Tenant any right, power or authority to contract for or permit the rendering of any services or the furnishing of any materials that would give rise to the filing of any lien against the Premises, or any part thereof.

46. Damage by Fire or Other Casualty. If the Premises is destroyed or damaged by fire or other casualty that, in the opinion of an architect or engineer selected by Tenant, the same cannot be repaired or restored within sixty (60) days from the occurrence of such casualty, the lease of the Premises may be terminated at Tenant's option. If Tenant terminates the Lease, the insurance proceeds representing the replacement cost of the Premises, as provided by Tenant's insurance, will be assigned by Tenant to the Landlord. If Tenant continues the Lease, Tenant's insurance proceeds shall be used to rebuild the Premises. If in the opinion of an architect or engineer selected by the Tenant, the Premises can be restored within sixty (60) days, Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord. The Landlord has the option to authorize the Tenant to repair, rebuild or replace the Premises, so as to restore the Premises to the extent permissible by law and to substantially restore the condition in which they were immediately prior to such damage or destruction, provided the cost of such repair or replacement is covered by the Tenant's insurance policy. The Landlord has the option to retain a qualified architect, engineer or project manager to oversee the aforementioned repairs.

47. Condemnation.

(a) Termination.

- (i) If all of the Premises are covered by a condemnation; or
- (ii) if any part of the Premises is covered by a condemnation and the remainder thereof is insufficient for the reasonable operation therein of Tenant's business in Tenant's sole opinion; then in any such event, this Lease shall terminate and all obligations hereunder shall cease as of the date upon which possession is taken by the condemnor.

(b) Partial Condemnation.

(i) If there is a partial condemnation and this Lease has not been terminated pursuant to Subparagraph (a) of this Section 47, Tenant shall diligently restore the Premises to a condition and size as nearly comparable as reasonably possible to the condition and size thereof immediately prior to the date upon which possession shall have been taken by the condemnor. If the condemnation proceeds are more than adequate to cover the cost of restoration and Tenant's expenses in collecting the condemnation proceeds, any excess proceeds shall be retained by Tenant.

(ii) If there is a partial condemnation and this Lease has not been terminated on the date upon which the condemnor shall have obtained possession, the obligations of Landlord and Tenant under this Lease shall be unaffected by such condemnation.

(c) Award. Tenant shall have the right to make a claim against the condemnor for the removal expenses, business dislocation damages, moving expenses, and the unamortized costs of any alterations made by Tenant. Except as aforesaid, Tenant hereby waives all claims against Landlord and all claims against the condemnor, and Tenant hereby assigns to Landlord all claims against the condemnor including, without limitation, all claims for leasehold damages and diminution in the value of Tenant's leasehold interest.

(d) Temporary Taking. If the condemnor should take only the right to possession for a fixed period of time or for the duration of an emergency or other temporary condition, then, notwithstanding anything hereinabove provided, this Lease shall continue in full force and effect.

48. Quiet Enjoyment. Tenant, upon paying the charges herein provided for and observing and keeping all covenants, agreements and conditions of this Lease on its part to be kept, shall quietly have and enjoy the Premises during the Term without hindrance or molestation by anyone claiming by or through Landlord, subject, however, to the exceptions, reservations and conditions of this Lease. Tenant will recognize any party taking possession of the Premises as security for the debt of the Landlord; provided however, that the Lease remains in full force and effect and Tenant's rights under the Lease are not disturbed.

49. Certificate. Landlord and Tenant agree at any time and from time to time, within twenty (20) days after written request, to execute, acknowledge and deliver to the requesting party a written instrument in recordable form certifying that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect (or if there have been modifications, that it is in full force and effect as modified and stating the modifications); that Tenant has accepted possession of the Premises and the date on which the Term commenced; the dates to which other charges have been paid in advance, if any, and stating whether or not to the best knowledge of the signer of such certificate Landlord or Tenant are in default in the performance of any covenant, agreement or condition contained in this Lease, and, if so, specifying each such default of which the signer may have knowledge; and stating that it is understood that such instrument delivered pursuant to this Section 49 may be relied upon by any prospective purchaser of the Premises, any mortgagees thereof or any assignee of Landlord's or Tenant's interest in this Lease, or any part thereof. Landlord agrees upon the request of Tenant to execute and deliver a memorandum of Lease in recordable form and providing such summary of the terms of this Lease as Tenant shall specify.

50. Curing Tenant's Defaults. If Tenant shall be in default after the expiration of all applicable notice and cure periods, in the performance of any of its obligations hereunder, Landlord may (but shall not be obligated to do so), in addition to any other rights it may have in law or equity, and after written notice to Tenant, except in the case of emergency, cure such default on behalf of Tenant, and Tenant shall reimburse Landlord upon demand for any sums paid or costs incurred by Landlord in curing such default, including interest at the rate of six percent (6%) per annum, from the respective dates of Landlord's making of the payments and incurring of the costs, on all sums advanced by Landlord as aforesaid, which sums and costs together with interest thereon shall be deemed payable hereunder and shall be payable within thirty (30) days after demand.

51. Notices. All notices, demands, requests, consents, certificates and waivers required or permitted hereunder from either party to the other shall be in writing and sent by United States registered mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid or by a nationally recognized overnight courier (i.e., Federal Express). Either party may at any time, in the manner set forth for giving notices to the other, set forth a different address to which notices to it shall be sent. Such notice or demand shall be given, and shall be deemed to have been served and given:

- (a) when received by hand-delivery or personal service;
- (b) the day after deposit with a nationally recognized overnight courier service; or
- (c) five (5) days after mailed by registered or certified mail, return, receipt requested, postage prepaid, addressed to either party at its address below:

52. Surrender. Tenant agrees, at the expiration or earlier termination of the term hereof, promptly to yield up, and in the condition required to be maintained by Tenant hereunder, (reasonable wear and tear and damage by fire or other casualty excepted), the Premises. Tenant further agrees that this Lease shall, unless sooner terminated, pursuant to the provisions hereof, expire absolutely on the expiration of the term hereof without the requirement of any notice from Landlord to Tenant. If Tenant holds over after the expiration of the Term, Tenant shall be deemed to be a month-to-month upon the same terms and conditions as existed at the expiration of the Term.

53. Defaults—Remedies.

(a) The occurrence of any of the following shall constitute a default by Tenant under this Lease, each an “Event of Default;”

(i) if Tenant shall fail to pay any sum payable to Landlord hereunder when due, and such default shall continue uncured for more than ten (10) days after receipt of written notice that the same is due;

(ii) if Tenant shall fail to perform or observe any of the other covenants, terms or conditions contained in this Lease for more than forty-five (45) days after written notice from Landlord, or such longer period as is reasonably required to correct any such default, provided that Tenant promptly commences and diligently continues to effectuate a cure; or

(iii) the filing of a petition by or against Tenant for adjudication as a bankruptcy or insolvency or for its reorganization or for the appointment pursuant to any local, state or federal bankruptcy or insolvency law of a receiver or trustee of Tenant’s property; or, an assignment by Tenant for the benefit of creditors; or, the taking possession of the property of Tenant by any local, state or federal governmental officer or agency or court-appointed official for the dissolution or liquidation of Tenant or for the operating, either temporary or permanent, of Tenant’s business; provided, however, that if any such action is commenced against Tenant the same shall not constitute a default if Tenant causes the same to be dismissed, stayed or discharged within ninety (90) days after the filing of same.

(b) Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, Landlord may:

(i) re-enter the Premises and remove all persons and all or any property therefrom, either by summary dispossession proceedings or by any suitable action or proceeding at law, and repossess and enjoy the Premises, together with all additions, alterations and improvements. Upon recovering possession of the Premises by reason of or based upon or arising out of an Event of Default on the part of Tenant, Landlord may, at Landlord’s option, either terminate this Lease or make such alterations and repairs as may be reasonably necessary in order to relet the Premises and relet the Premises or any part or parts thereof, either in Landlord’s name or otherwise, for a term or terms which may at Landlord’s option be less than or exceed the period which would otherwise have constituted the balance of the term of this Lease and upon such other terms and conditions as in Landlord’s sole discretion may seem advisable and to such person or persons as may in Landlord’s discretion seem best.

(ii) terminate this Lease and the term hereby created without any right on the part of Tenant to waive the forfeiture by payment of any sum due or by other performance of any condition, term or covenant broken; whereupon Landlord shall be entitled to recover damages for violation of Tenant’s obligations

(c) No right or remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to Landlord is intended to be exclusive of any other right or remedy herein or by law provided but each shall be cumulative and in addition to every other right or remedy given herein or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute.

(d) No waiver by Landlord of any breach by Tenant of any of Tenant's obligations, agreements or covenants herein shall be a waiver of any subsequent breach or of any obligation, agreement or covenant, nor shall any forbearance by Landlord to seek a remedy for any breach by Tenant be a waiver by Landlord of any rights and remedies with respect to such or any subsequent breach.

54. No Services by Landlord. Except as otherwise expressly provided for herein, Landlord is not and shall not be required to render any services of any kind to Tenant.

55. Loss and Damage. Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant or responsible in any way for any death or injury arising from or out of any occurrence in or upon the Premises or for damage to property of Tenant or others located on the Premises, nor shall it be responsible in the event of damage to any property of Tenant or others from any cause whatsoever, unless damage, loss, injury or death results from the negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord, its agents, contractors, servants or employees or others for whom it may be responsible. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Landlord shall not be liable for any injury or damage to persons or property resulting from fire, explosion, falling plaster, steam, gas, electricity, water, rain, snow or leaks from any part of the Premises or from the pipes, appliances, or plumbing works, roof, street, or subsurface of any floor or ceiling or from any other place or because of dampness or climatic conditions from any other cause of whatsoever kind. Landlord shall not be liable for any damage whatsoever caused by any other tenant or persons at the Premises, or by an occupant of adjacent property thereto, or the public, or construction of any private, public or quasi-public work. All property of Tenant kept or stored on the Premises shall be kept or stored at the risk of Tenant only.

(b) Tenant shall provide to Landlord copies of:

(i) applications or other materials submitted by Tenant to any governmental agency in compliance with Environmental Statutes;

(ii) any notification submitted by Tenant to any person pursuant to Environmental Statutes;

(iii) any permit, license, approval, or amendment or modification thereto granted to Tenant pursuant to Environmental Statutes; (iv) any record or manifest required to be maintained by Tenant pursuant to Environmental Statutes; and (v) any correspondence, notice of violation, summons, order, complaint or other document received by Tenant pertaining to compliance with Environmental Statutes or in connection with Restricted Activities.

(c) Tenant shall not cause contamination by Tenant of the Premises arising from Restricted Activities or by "hazardous substances" within the meaning of the federal Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 9601-9657, as amended by the Superfund Amendments and Reauthorization Act of 1986, Pub.
